As of April 14th 2003 the HIPPA LAW (Health Insurance Portability & Accountability) states that any information in a clients files belongs to the client and not the practice, therefore it must be protected.

In order for us to review the necessary files to help determine if the client is suitable for one of our Assisted Living Facilities we need written permission by the client or the Power of Attorney representing the client.

Please sign and date this form allowing us permission to review the necessary documents.
